Some might say off the charts...

Algunos dirían que fue algo fuera de lo común...

We made space at the lunch table and space in our hearts,
For new friends, new experiences, it all came in parts
Bits and pieces over the summer— life truly is an art.
Now the summer is ending, and the start of the school year is near.
Use this space to write something heartfelt, maybe funny;
and we hope to see each other again,
same time, same place, next year.
